

Fundraising Ideas

If you know exactly how to fundraise, fantastic. If not then here are a few ideas to get you started!

Top Tips

- Plan ahead—allow plenty of time to organise the detail of your event and collect your sponsorship or ticket money.
- Publicity—make it known far and wide what you intend to do (e.g. posters, Facebook and Twitter).
- Have Fun—this is about using your talents and enjoying what you love doing whilst knowing you are making a fantastic contribution towards fighting poverty.

Contact the office for any help and advice, we'll be happy to help!
E: info@fivetalents.org.uk, T: 0203 326 0426, W: www.fivetalents.org.uk

Talent Show

Is your work-place full of talent? Singers? Tap dancers? Bands? Host a talent show and find out. Guaranteed to be fun!

5-a-side Football Tournament

Footie-mad? Great! Raise money by hosting a 5-a-side football tournament.

Sponsored Swim

Great swimmer? Why not get your family and friends to sponsor you to swim a crazy distance!

Fun Run

Dig out your trainers and hit the road. Great exercise and a great way to get sponsored.

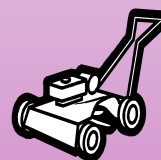

Bad hair day

Want an excuse to dye your hair purple? Have long locks and want to shave them off for charity? Get sponsored for a bad hair day.

Cake sale

Got a sweet tooth? Handy with a food mixer? Have fun baking delicious home made cakes to sell at lunchtime!

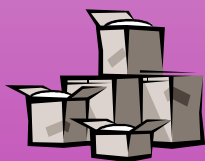

Promises Auction

Hold a promise auction and auction your time. E.g. Sell 2 hours on a Saturday morning to mow the lawn, clear out the garage or walk the dog.

Guess the?

...number of coins in a jar
...age of your boss
...weight of the baby
...flags of the world.

Jumble sale

Do you have CD's, DVD's or games you don't use anymore but someone else may treasure? Have a jumble sale!

Quiz night

Show off your general knowledge with a quiz night or day.

Car Wash

Love cars? Have a car wash day and spend time with your favourite thing... cars!

Fancy Dress Day

Want an opportunity to get dressed up? Organise a themed fancy dress day or a casual clothes day!