G20 Debate

Annual Review 2008

Five Talents is now helping over 20,000 people with business training and small loans. Read about our work in our latest Annual Review 2008: (www.fivetalents.org.uk/page-annual-reports.html) or contact the office for a paper copy.

Gordon Brown and Kevin Rudd (Australian PM) spoke about rebuilding trust in the financial markets at a stimulating pre-G20 debate in St. Paul's Cathedral. The inspirational debate was hosted by the Bishop of London and Five Talents was the official charity partner. On raising £2,200 from the retiring collection, the Bishop of London wrote, "I am delighted that people responded so generously to the appeal and I am very grateful for the coaster which I shall keep on my desk to remind me of the work of Five Talents." Please contact the office if you too would like a coaster and go to http://www.fivetalents.org.uk/images/general/St\_Paul%27s\_April09.pdf to see the full report.

YouTube Video - India

Following a recent visit to the programme in Chennai, we have made a new four minute video describing the work. Go to:

Songs of Praise

Songs of Praise

Five Talents will feature on Songs of Praise on BBC1 on Sunday 17 May at 4.40 pm. UK Director - Tom Sanderson will speak with other Christian leaders on the theme of entrepreneurship. We are thrilled that the producers have chosen Five Talents for an interview.

Art for Art's sake?

Actually it's art for Five Talents' sake. The exhibition at the Colomb Gallery in London from 15-23 May will be raising funds for Five Talents. There will be a charity auction at the preview evening on 14 May. Go to:
